Bangalore city.

Sir,

Last year you were sending one "General Vacancy list" to the Reading Room of the above Sangham. So, I request to you to kindly continue the same generosity towards us this year also and oblige. The Sangham consists of forty students and even outsiders will visit our Reading Room. I hope that my request will be fulfilled.

Thanking you in advance,

I remain, Sir,

Result

(7) While going through the Gazettes of 1928 in some other connection, it was accidentally noticed that the notice No. 3920 G.O. dated 28.10.1928 re: Supply of copies of notifications of vacancies to recognised and or registered Associations, was published in the Gazette dated 1st November 1928. Vide the Gazette put up.

Deposits of the year 1928-29 have been destroyed.

The official should have been aware of this order.
 Q

(8) This notice has not been formally withdrawn. But since the time when vacancies were not published in the Gazette under the specific orders of Govt, the supply of copies/appear to have been stopped and discontinued.

Letter dated 2.12.32 from the Secy. Saradasa Sanstha, Poon City stating that the No. & date of the letter is not available & that copies may be continued to be supplied.

Subd with refce to para 3 supra
 MS 2/12/32 (8) The above Association was already being supplied with copies, this upon may perhaps be complete.
